CIRCULAR

Sub: Distribution of participation certificate/ merit Certificates of National School Games & merit certificates of Interzonal Games of the year 2019-20 in connection to admission for undergraduate courses

Every year, National School Games are organized by S.G.F.I. in which state units participate. Also, Interzonal Games are conducted by Sports Branch, Dte. of Education in various disciplines.

The participation certificates/ merit certificates for National School Games as well as National School Games are distributed as and when events are over/ received from S.G.F.I.

This year also, the participation certificates/ merit certificates for National School Games as well as National School Games were distributed by the concerned game incharges, however, the process was halted due to COVID-19 outbreak. After relaxation of the lockdown, the process was again started, however, some players were reluctant to collect the same due to safety reasons.

As the admission process for various undergraduate programmes is underway and the applicants applying under the Sports Quota have to submit the participation/ merit certificate as supporting document with his application form.

Although, the majority of the participation/ merit certificates have been distributed, however, to avoid any inconvenience in submission of participation/ merit certificate by the prospective applicant, it has been decided that the pending participation/ merit certificate for National School Games and merit Certificate for Inter-zonal Games may be collected from this office w.e.f. 01.07.2020 to 08.07.2020 (except 04th and 5th July) as per the schedule given below after contacting the game incharges as detailed under :
