In spirit of participative democracy, the Committee seeks the views and opinions of the stakeholders to enable it to recommend to the Government of Delhi to arrive at a suitable decision and make Delhi Right to Education Rules accordingly. The Committee invites suggestions, comments, concerns and ideas regarding the future course of action in the light of the recent amendment to Right to Education Act and also advise the Government ways to improve the school system that enables the children to achieve foundational skills, happiness, and innovations.

Ideas are also invited to review the systemic design, process, curriculum, examination pattern that enables teachers to teachers and larger school system to move away from the examination pattern that is based on understanding of the children better rather than fear of failure or detention.

You may fill the survey by clicking on the following link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/965HVNK> and submit your thoughts and suggestions on or before 24.02.2019.

The Committee may invite select group of individuals or organisations should it seek more clarifications, or greater depth or require discussion. The details of the same shall be communicated shortly.

The Committee encourages all to actively participate especially the children, teachers, parents and the counselors.

Anurag Kundu,
Chairperson, Committee & Member, DCPCR
