8 Bholi was a quiet girl. She was born in the family of landlord. She was the youngest daughter of her parents. In her childhood age Bholi understanding of things and mind was quite slow. Therefore due to this the parents of Bholi decided to keep her name Bholi. In her school time Bholi did not talk with anyone even she was not friendly to her teacher also. She did not participate in pranks, enjoyments. She was alone. Her classmate played many pranks with her and laugh on her weakness. She was neglected or ignored by her classmates. She was not taken in any classroom activity. Her parents were also upset of her behaviour. Bholi was very much harassed by her company and companions. She faced many problems due to her nature. Therefore this statement 'Bholi is a child different from others. This difference makes her an object of neglect and laughter' is true. But if we become friendly to such children and carry out their weakness. They can do well as we can see when Bholi was understood by her teacher. She got courage and loose her fears.
